The Empress' Starlight AIDS Benefit shall be held annually and hosted by the Reigning Empress. In the event the Empress throne is vacant, it is my wish that Empresses of the COM will host said benefit. However, the Reigning Emperor may choose to host the benefit instead. All funds raised shall be dispersed to a Court approved AIDS related charity as selected by the benefit host.

If our Prayers, Hopes and Dreams are some day answered and there is no need for an AIDS related charity, this benefit will be known as the Empress' Starlight Benefit and funds will be dispersed to any approved Court charity.

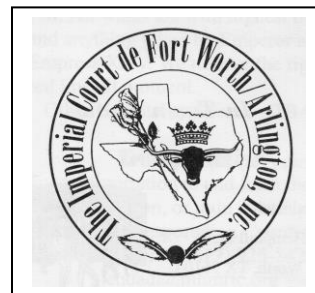

This event will traditionally be held in June or at the scheduling discretion of the Reigning Empress.

Although the desired performance lineup would be filled with Reigning and past Empresses from across the lands, it is not a requirement. All entertainers are most certainly welcome. This too is at the discretion of the Reigning Empress.

By decree of their most Imperial Majesties, Emperor & Empress XXXI, Brendan Peoples and Paige "Diva" Daniels:

Let it be known throughout the Realms of the International Court System; and let it be decreed throughout the Empires of the State of Texas;

Whereas the Imperial Court de Fort Worth/Arlington (ICFWA) is the founding Court in the great state of Texas;

Whereas it is required to travel to promote goodwill in the name of ICFWA;

And Whereas the ICFWA is the only court within the great state of Texas to not have a travel fund;

We do hereby proclaim that an event will be held by the Dowager Monarchs, between Coronation and Investitures, for the newly crowned Monarchs. The funds from this event shall be placed in a sub account, from this day forward, known as the "Travel Fund" account. Funds will be split equally between the Reigning Monarchs. The travel fund may only be used for attending Out of State Coronations. Reimbursements are limited to funds in the travel fund account; they may only be reimbursed for transportation and lodging; and shall be limited to such expenses specifically for the Reigning Monarchs. i.e., a Reigning Monarch may share a hotel room with others; however, reimbursement will be for the shared percentage of the Reigning Monarch only.

Funds will be split equally between the Reigning Monarchs. The travel fund may only be used for attending Out of State Coronations. Reimbursements are limited to funds in the travel fund account; they may only be reimbursed for transportation and lodging; and shall be limited to such expenses specifically for the Reigning Monarchs. i.e., a Reigning Monarch may share a hotel room with others; however, reimbursement will be for the shared percentage of the Reigning Monarch only.

It is understood that no receipt needs to be submitted for reimbursement for travel by automobile. Reimbursement for travel by automobile will be calculated by multiplying the mileage traveled from their home to the hotel of Coronation and back, by the most direct route, as verified by an on-line map program, at the current published IRS charity mileage rate. Additionally, any tolls paid are eligible for reimbursement with receipts. If other persons travel in the vehicle with the Reigning Monarch a pro-rated reimbursement will be paid. For example, if one Reigning Monarch travels in a car to an Out of State Coronation with one other person, the Reigning Monarch would be entitled to be reimbursed 1/2 of the payment calculated above, regardless of who owns the vehicle traveled in. When one Reigning Monarch travels with two other people in the car, the reimbursement would be 1/3 of the payment calculated above. Travel by any other means will only be reimbursed after the submission of a receipt.

Except as noted below, reimbursement requests can only be submitted AFTER the Coronation has been attended. The ONLY exception is the reimbursement of an advance purchase of an airline ticket. All airline tickets must be used for their intended purpose. If, for any reason, the airline ticket is not used for its intended purpose, the Monarch in question will be put on suspension until such time of reimbursement is made.

Following submission of travel receipts to the Treasurer, the Reigning Monarch shall be presented a check in the amount of reimbursement. Failure to submit the appropriate receipts as described herein will constitute forfeiture of reimbursement. Upon completion of the reign, any funds left in the "Travel Fund" account will be transferred to the general fund account and disbursed with those funds to selected charities. Failure of a Reigning Monarch to comply with these provisions may be grounds for forfeiture of title and removal from office by the Board of Directors.
